Mr. POWELL,

IN July last I gave Notice in your Gazette, that it would not ſuit me to GARBEL or SEAL INDICO for Exportation, but for the Gentlemen whoſe Names were then inſerted, at Two Dollars per Hundred Weight—which Reſolution I ſtill perſevere in; though I am afraid, I ſhall be under the diſagreeable Neceſſity to tell them this Crop as I did the laſt, That neither the Quality or Price would induce me to expoſe a Character which had coſt me near Forty Years Labour, attended with a great Expence, to eſtabliſh on a good Footing; for an Error in Judgment in me, is certainly a Crime—when, in another, of leſs Experience, it would only be deemed an Overſight. However, when I find Indico brought to Market in a merchantable Condition, I will ſo far act the generous Part, to encourage the Gentlemen in my Liſt to become conſiderable Purchaſers, as not to take a Copper from the Planters for inſpecting their Indico, provided any of the under-mentioned Gentlemen are the Purchaſers:—If they are not, I ſhall charge Five Pounds Currency for every Hundred Weight, after it is tared and weighed, with a Certificate of its Quality, and the proper Allowances for Damp and Mixtures:—Neither do I intend this Favour to them till the Middle of January—for if by that Time they can ſell their Indico without my Certificate, they naturally will not apply to me. As to the Price each Quality may obtain, it is to me of little Importance.—My Buſineſs, as Inſpector-General, when called upon, is to prevent Impoſitions either by the Seller or Purchaſer.—Had ſome Shippers of Indico laſt Crop taken the ſame Precaution, and not have truſted ſo much to their own Judgment, it would all have been ſold in England by the Letters of the 7th of September; whereas near Two-Thirds remained without Purchaſers—and when the October Packet arrives, the Purchaſers here of this Crop, will be able to judge what Price they can afford for prime Indico, and in Proportion for inferior.

MOSES LINDO,
Inſpector-General of Indico.

New Advertiſements.

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subſcriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years paſt, have already introduced it to Buſineſs.—He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindneſs to him, as it was very induſtriouſly inſinuated, that Rice would not ſell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himſelf all his Friends are fully ſo too, that their Crops, landed in large or ſmall Parcels, will ſell together as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and ſell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooſes to decline that Buſineſs, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will ſtill land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he ſhall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all poſſible Diſpatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is ſure there are none preferable to them in Town in thoſe Reſpects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more ſecure from Fire; and it is almoſt impoſſible for a Barrel of Rice to be ſtolen in landing or ſhipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as uſe his Wharf conſtantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:—No prudent Planter but muſt be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmoſt Conſequence to him, as many, for theſe three Years paſt, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) diſpoſed of very much againſt their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is ſure has been the Caſe, particularly this Year ſeveral Times, notwithſtanding the Shortneſs of the Crop.

Meſſrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themſelves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will tranſact their Buſineſs on his Wharf.—To theſe Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend ſuch of his Friends who are not otherwiſe engaged.

Chriſtopher Gadſden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for ſuch Parcels of Rice as they purchaſe at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,
ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,
THAT THEY CONTINUE THE
Factorage Buſineſs in all its Branches,
(ON THE USUAL TERMS)

AND, for the Convenience of good Storage, will tranſact it on Captain GADSDEN's WHARF; where they deſire ſuch of their Friends, as it may be agreeable to, will order the Goods they intend to favour them with, being convinced, that they will ſell as well there, as at any other Place in CHARLES-TOWN.——Conſtant Attendance will alſo be given at their other Compting-Houſe on the BAY.

Their Friends will be ſupplied with proper Boats agreeable to their Orders: And they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favours, by a ſteady Attention to their Employers Intereſt, eſpecially as they are determined to confine themſelves to the Factorage Buſineſs only.—And they aſſure their Friends, that they are not in any Wiſe intereſted in Captain GADSDEN's Stores; ſo that whenever they ſhall think it neceſſary to ſtore for a better Market, it muſt be SOLELY with a View to their Friends Intereſt.

N. B. WANTED, to attend on the ſaid Wharf, a Perſon well qualified and recommended.

ALL Perſons that have any Demands againſt the Eſtate of ROBERT YATES, late of CHARLES-TOWN, deceaſed, are deſired to ſend them in, properly atteſted, to the Subſcriber, on or before the 10th Day of FEBRUARY next, as a final Diſpoſal of the Effects will be made that Day.

 The Writers of the Pieces addressed to TWIST & Co. and sent to us to be published in this Day's Paper, must excuse our omiting them: For, had they been inserted, we should probably have been obliged, next Week, to give a Place to another Letter from that Company; whose declared Purpose it is, to attempt to reduce the Characters of others, if possible, to a Level with its own, (a Character that is held in general Detestation, by every Friend to good Order, and every Well Wisher to this Province) and it must be acknowledged, that Nature has been as liberal to the Company, as it has in bestowing certain Talents on the Monkey and Pole-Cat.——The Public are the best Judges, and to them we shall always appeal, whether the Character given of this Paper by TWIST & Co. is just, or misrepresented.

Mr. POWELL,

The Insertion of the following Lines, will much oblige,
A CONSTANT READER.

MISS SUKEY at Church, on the conjugal Day,
After CHERISH and LOVE, mutter'd inwardly 'BEY;
For clipping the Latter, it came in her Head,
She was bound to perform, no more than she said.
The Parson as prudent, insisted to hear,
O—BEY repeated, both distinctly and clear;
Till the Groom interposing, said,—let it pass so,
E're the Business is done, I'll make her cry, O!——

THOUGHTS ON PLEASURE.

Pleasure never comes sincere to man,
But lent by Heav'n upon hard usury:
And while Jove holds us out the bowl of joy,
Ere it can reach our lips 'tis dash'd with gall
By some left-handed God. DRYDEN.

IT is a hard matter to gather flowers in the garden of pleasure without hazarding the bite of the serpent which lies hidden thereunder. For pleasures, like the bee, have honey in the mouth, but a sting in the tail. The sweetest of all flowers hath its thorns, and who can determine whether the scent be more delectable or the pricks more irksome.

Pleasures, like Dalilah, shew and speak fair, but in the end they bereave us of our strength, our sight, our selves. Like gnats they fly about our ears for a while, but are sure to sting. Pleasure, at the best, is but a tilted vessel, which, though it please for a cup or two, the lees are at hand, and a little disturbance turns it into distaste. It is like a potion, which being but tasted is good, but mortal if ingurgitated. We should deal with our delights as ladies with their squirrels, never play with them but when we have nothing to do, or for want of better company. All that is honest and profitable should please; but amongst the most, the passion of pleasure transporteth the consideration both of honour and profit. Pleasure, when it is arrived at the highest, is not far distant from distaste. The more that flowers breathe forth their excellent odour, so much the sooner they fade.

Jupiter commanded pleasure to retire to heaven, for he was so well followed and served by men, that he did no more care to leave the earth. To return the more purely, he disrobed himself. Grief, who all the time of his abode on earth had been banished, found those cloaths, and disguised herself. Since she hath always deceived the word, which under the shew of joy encounters sorrow, the greatest joys being but meer vexations covered with little pleasures. Pleasures smother them that embrace them; sorrow and delight hold so fast together, that they are inseparable. Pleasure, like the box, bears no fruit, but produceth a specious flower, which killeth the bees that suck it, for it surprizes the eyes by a vain illusion, whilst it conveys the poison into the heart. Pleasures are born in the senses, and, like abortives, are commonly consumed in their birth. They must end with life; and it is a great hazard if, during life itself, they serve not their host for an execution. Recreation is a second creation, when weariness hath almost annihilated our spirits. It is the breathing of the soul, which otherwise would be stifled with continual business; yet our recreations should be as a file, to smooth and cleanse the spirit, and adapt it to its proper functions, and we may trespass in them, if using such as are forbidden by the lawyer, as against the statutes, by the physician, as against health; but especially by the divine, as against conscience.

Delight is the period of all the motions of our soul; and as love is the beginning thereof, pleasure is the end. True delight is never more pleasing than when in extremes; the greater it is the more it doth ravish us, and, being agreeable to our nature, it never makes us more happy than when it most abundantly communicates itself.

The pleasures of this world have in them a double vanity; they are transitory, they are unsatisfactory; as they cannot give me true content whilst I possess them, because they are not satisfactory, so let them not create in me any discontent when I must leave them, because they are but transitory.
